Land, David	Authority
Lane, Terri	Partners for Progress and Garrard County Band Boosters	I have nothing to report for Partners for Progress. For the GCHS band, we will be having a plant sale this spring with the help of Gary Shell of Shell Farms. More info will follow as it becomes available. We will also be in charge of the food concessions for the “Come Sit a Spell” at the Owsley House in June. A special THANKS to Whitaker Bank, First Southern National Bank, Farmers Bank, and Irvin Group for sponsoring our t-shirts for our trip to the National competition in Indianapolis this past November. Thanks to all businesses and individuals who have donated their time or money to support the band.
Little, Nancy	Lancaster Woman’s Club Owsley House Herb Group
Long, Kristin	Garrard County Arts Council	April 17, 2010- Earth Day with T.E.A.C.H.: GCAC would like to have an recycled collage activity with the youth. We need to pass out flyers for an adult art competition, “Garrard Renaissance: Making Old Things New.” We need volunteers to plan, organize, and teach. May 8, 2010- Arts Sale: Owsley House Foundation Board has invited the GCAC to do a spring Arts Sale to compliment the Herb Sale and the Mother’s Day Luncheon. This will be located at the Owsley House. We need artists and crafts people to sign up to sale. We need to pass out flyers for an adult art competition, “Garrard Renaissance: Making Old Things New.” June 4-5, 2010- “Come Sit A Spell” Chair Project and Community Event. We have given out all of our captain’s chairs donated by the Owsley House. If you have a chair, it is due by May 1st. Everyone is welcome to the community event and auction on the 5th for a free night of family entertainment on the Owsley House lawn. Bring a picnic or purchase a food box from the GC Marching Band Boosters. The chair auction is a fundraiser for the GCAC and The Owsley House. We need to pass out flyers for an adult art competition, “Garrard Renaissance: Making Old Things New.” June 18,2010- Party On the Square: Still in the planning stages...GCAC will have an arts quadrant of the square. Everything is free to the public. The Higher Learning Center and GCAC is sponsoring an adult art competition for “Garrard Renaissance: Making Old Things New.” We will email more info and have details later this month. We need people to plan, organize, work, and participate in the Party on the Square. We will be discussing this event in detail at the next meeting. TBA. June 27, 2010- Bark in the Park: The Humane Society has asked for an GCAC art expo at the Logan Hubble Park to showcase artist’s perceptions of animals. This includes 2-D, 3-D, and spoken word. We need artist’s work to showcase at the Logan Hubble Park
